

The Friday Message Volume 16 – 19th January 2024 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

Reception	Year 1
This week we have continued learning all about 'The	This week, in RE, Year 1 have been talking about Wise Men visit Jesus' (Matt 2:1-12). We used Godly	family. We have been discussing as a class the Play once again, this time focussing on The Three	special things we like to do with our families and then Wise Men's gifts to Jesus. We learnt that gold is a	we started to talk about Jesus and his family. We special yellow metal which can be used to make	looked at special imagery and discussed how they jewellery and that frankincense and myrrh can be	were just like us, and the kind of things they might used as perfumes or medicine to heal. Both classes	have liked to do together.
-
discussed what special gifts they had received, and we talked about why they were precious gifts; either because of what they were or who they had come from. In provision, we have enjoyed wrapping our own gifts for Baby Jesus and writing tags for them too.	V O
Year 2	Year 3
This week we continued our learning all about Chosen	In RE year 3 have read the parable of the Good People within the Bible. We first looked at the story of	Samaritan. We discussed what happened in the Moses and had great fun using props to re-enact	parable and thought about how we can be like the elements of the story. We discussed which parts are	Good Samaritan at home and school. We thought sad, happy, and powerful and used a range of art	about whether it was easy to be a Christian or not. We materials to replicate these. We then went and learnt	have learnt about how St. Paul had to learn to be a about the story of Daniel and the Lion's den. We	Christian and we have thought about what we can deepened this by discussing what we can learn from	learn from his experience. We took part in a hot Daniel and how we should have courage and be loyal	seating activity to understand more about St. Paul.
in our lives.
Year 4	Year 5
This week, the children have been exploring what it	Our focus this week was on the covenant between
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However,
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However,
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts of Holy Communion. We started off by unpicking the	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value Our Gospel Vale we are exploring is
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts of Holy Communion. We started off by unpicking the Our Father prayer, exploring what each line means	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts of Holy Communion. We started off by unpicking the Our Father prayer, exploring what each line means linking this to what we know about Catholicism and	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value Our Gospel Vale we are exploring is
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts of Holy Communion. We started off by unpicking the Our Father prayer, exploring what each line means linking this to what we know about Catholicism and Catholic values. We have then looked at the	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value Our Gospel Vale we are exploring is
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts of Holy Communion. We started off by unpicking the Our Father prayer, exploring what each line means linking this to what we know about Catholicism and Catholic values. We have then looked at the importance of Receiving Holy Communion for	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value Our Gospel Vale we are exploring is Perseverance When was a time you have had to 'keep
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts of Holy Communion. We started off by unpicking the Our Father prayer, exploring what each line means linking this to what we know about Catholicism and Catholic values. We have then looked at the importance of Receiving Holy Communion for Catholics, the meaning and value behind it and have	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value Our Gospel Vale we are exploring is Perseverance
This week, the children have been exploring what it means for Jesus to be truly God and truly human. They have used Bibles to identify moments where Jesus is God and is human, and sometimes where there is a crossover between both. The children have reflected on the importance of Jesus having these different aspects, both for the people of His time and for the lesson we can continue to learn today. Year 6 In RE this week, we have looked deeper into the parts of Holy Communion. We started off by unpicking the Our Father prayer, exploring what each line means linking this to what we know about Catholicism and Catholic values. We have then looked at the importance of Receiving Holy Communion for	Our focus this week was on the covenant between Abraham and God. In the scriptures we read about how God asked Abraham to give up his life and move to a different place to share God's love. This meant Abraham really had to trust God and put enormous faith in Him. We discussed this together and asked ourselves if we would be willing to do this. However, we also explored how God makes a covenant with us all and to share His love, we need to ensure we are doing the right thing and having trust in His word. We explored the word trust and what that means for our own faith in God. Monthly Gospel Value Our Gospel Vale we are exploring is Perseverance When was a time you have had to 'keep