Maternity Class teacher (MPS) OFSTED: Outstanding in All Areas (March 2025)

St John Henry Newman Catholic Primary School is a rapidly growing, two-form entry primary school situated within the Hampton Water development. Since opening in September 2022 with just 38 pupils, the school has grown significantly and now serves over 420 children. In March 2025, the school was judged Outstanding in all areas by Ofsted, recognising the strength of our staff, our community and our unwavering commitment to excellence.

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Class Teacher to cover a maternity leave for a minimum of two terms. Early Career Teachers (ECTs) are warmly encouraged to apply. This is an excellent opportunity to join a highly effective teaching team and contribute to a school community where education is rooted in strong Catholic values.

We can offer:

- A unique opportunity to be part of a thriving and outstanding school and community
- A modern, eco-friendly school building
- Excellent IT provision, including a staff laptop and iPad
- Opportunities to contribute to the continued development of an ambitious primary curriculum, working closely with school leaders
- A highly supportive and knowledgeable governing body
- A robust and effective wellbeing offer including access to EV Charging points
- Personalised and high-quality professional development
- A brand-new classroom – complete with its own cupboard

We are looking for someone who:

- Is enthusiastic and ready for an exciting teaching opportunity
- Is keen to develop professionally, both as a teacher and a future leader
- Is adaptable and positive, with the flexibility required to thrive in a growing school
- Is committed to nurturing children within a strong Catholic ethos

If you would like to be part of the continuing journey of St John Henry Newman Catholic Primary School, we warmly encourage you to arrange a visit. Please contact the school office by email at office@stjhn.org.uk or by telephone on 01733 304533.

Application forms can also be found on our school website: -
